BESCHRIJVING

The base tilts up the model and carries it like an open platform. You can leave the platform visible in attractively finished oak combined with the beautifully shaped matching oak legs, or you can upholster both in fabric or leather. The finishing touch with its delicate half cover-seam around the square lined but rounded shapes, complete the model visually. The real comfort story of this couch lies in the backrest with a pronounced lumbar support and with back cushions that can be lifted or collapsed to achieve the ideal position for fully supporting the head.
